IN THE NEWS:

Dolphin Days at the Hilton Waikoloa Village

The Rust Foundation participated in the Hilton Waikoloa Village's recent Dolphin Days charity event. The fourth annual Dolphin Days was a three-day fundraiser for the Pacific Marine Life Foundation and Hawaii Shriners Hospital. The Rust Foundation donated a literacy gift basket that included copies of The King of Skittledeedoo and other literacy-themed items. The Rust Foundation plans to have a larger involvement with the function next year.

Make-a-Book Program Expanding

Due to the success of the Make-a-Book program at a Writers Guild Foundation arranged school visit, several other schools have invited the Rust Foundation to visit their schools, but in order to do that, we need book-making supplies. We will also need volunteers to visit the schools as the dates firm up. We appreciate donations of money, materials, and time.

Laura Bush Appears on CBS Morning Show to Promote Reading

Early this month, Laura Bush appeared on the CBS Morning Show to launch her new summer reading program for kids. During the summer, children's authors will read their books on the show and Amazon will have the books available for purchase. If you'd like to see The King of Skittledeedoo, the only literacy-themed children's book, featured on the show or at her classroom visits, please write a letter of support for the book to the First Lady.

CHILDREN'S POETRY:

Noses and Feet

By Nicole Anne Braganza, United Arab Emirates

Some peoples noses and feet
I feel, are built in reverse;
Their feet smell, their noses run
Now what in the world can be worse?

This and other children's contributions can be seen at www.PowerforKids.com.

RUST FOUNDATION MISSION STATEMENT:

The Rust Foundation helps children by encouraging literacy and a lifelong commitment to reading.

The Rust Foundation is a grassroots literacy organization whose aim is to educate, motivate, and excite elementary school children to the wonders of reading at an early age. We believe that by reading to a child, helping one child at a time, we can stamp out this problem. Our organization's "Royal Readers" program provides books, interactive reading sessions, and educational activities for children at elementary schools across the country. Our new "Create-A-Book" program helps kids write and bind their own books.

Our motto is Live, Laugh, Learn

Helping Kids Become Royal Readers!
